FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Humana expands ownership of iCare joint venture

Milwaukee, December 4, 2020 – Leading health and well-being company Humana Inc. (NYSE: HUM) – a 50 percent owner of Wisconsin health care company Independent Care Health Plan (iCare) – announced today that it will acquire the remaining 50 percent of iCare from the company's co-owner, Centers for Independence, Inc. The joint venture dates back to 1994 and serves members in Wisconsin through Medicaid and Medicare offerings.

iCare currently serves 44,000 members through Wisconsin's Medicaid SSI program, BadgerCare program, Family Care Partnership program, and Medicare D-SNP plans for people who are eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid.

"Humana has owned 50 percent of iCare for 26 years," said Tom Lutzow, President and CEO of iCare. "Humana understands our mission and recognizes the commitment that our 370+ employees bring to our members every day. Going forward, Humana's technology, resources and expertise will help us deliver even better care to the members and communities we serve."

“As Humana continues to expand its Medicaid business, we are excited to fully participate in Wisconsin Medicaid and leverage our innovation, strong capabilities and deep Wisconsin employment base to better support Medicaid recipients across the state,” said John Barger, Senior Vice President and President of Humana’s Medicaid Business, Humana Healthy Horizons. “Given our successful joint venture with iCare and Humana’s long-standing commitment to Wisconsin – including coverage offerings across Medicare, Medicaid and Commercial product lines – we look forward to serving more beneficiaries and deepening our community presence through this transaction.”

The acquisition will increase Humana’s overall Medicaid membership to more than 730,000 Medicaid members across four states – Florida, Illinois, Kentucky and Wisconsin.

The closing of the transaction is subject to customary state regulatory approvals as well as other customary closing conditions. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
